CHURCH IS GRATEFUL.

St. Paul's Congregation Acknowledges in Annual Statement by Rev. F. Ehinger.

Annual report of St. Paul's Lutheran church for the year ending Dec. 1, 1902: "The Kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, etc." St. Matt. xiii. 33.

Thursday evening we organized our new board of trustees, consisting of John Brauch, vice president; August Gerhart, secretary; Wilhelm Schroeder, treasurer; George Schroeder, collector; and Louis Brunner, as elder, for the current year 1902-03.

The treasurer reported as follows: Received (including nearly $100 Sunday offerings), $711.15; expended (including salaries of organist, janitor, and for release of mortgage on church), $768.50; leaving a balance in the treasury of $255.50. A bank loan of $300 to clear church mortgage, in exchange for a quit claim deed, in all our local indebtedness, besides a moral obligation to our noble superintendent, Dr. A. Schaeffer, previously stated, which need not trouble us at all.

The council also expressed their cordial thanks to H. A. P. Trust for his gift of $100 for the year's payment, and to another friend outside of the city, for sending a check of $15.

The same thankful feeling prevailed towards all who had contributed to the salary of the pastor, and to other benevolent purposes, for mission, orphanage, etc., showing names from all classes of society and churches, from mayor and justices, newspapermen and Uncle Sam's postmasters, merchants and their clerks; from church dignitaries as Father Coffey, Coadjutor, down to the kitchen and silk mill girl, and not the last, but often the most liberal contributors to benevolent purposes are to my experience, saloon keepers and cigar makers (exceptions included), and to all them we say with St. Paul, II Cor. ix. 7, "God loves a cheerful giver."

Expansion in the word of the motto of the word is the motto of true Christianity. Rev. F. Ehinger. Carbondale, Pa., Dec. 4, 1902.

A MARVELOUS ESCAPE.

Engine Tender Passes Over Flagman Charles Hagenbach.

Flagman Charles Hagenbach, of Conductor Finlon's train, on the Erie, is one of the few men who have lived to date the experience of being knocked down by an engine and have a portion of the locomotive pass over him.

When Hagenbach's train stalled during the storm in a cut west of the dock, he went back to warn trains that might follow. When the train was freed, the pusher came back for Hagenbach. He did not hear its approach and was knocked down. The tender of the locomotive passed over him, but miraculously he lay flat on his back between the tracks, in just the position that kept him from being squeezed or crushed to death. The presence of snow was a factor in his preservation, it acting as a sort of cushion as he was dragged along.

Hagenbach's injuries are a number of internal bruises. He shows no signs of internal injury and will likely have untroubled progress to recovery.

Hagenbach's home is at No. 94 Park street, this city, whether he was taken yesterday forenoon, after being conveyed here on the Erie flyer.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Insurance Men Addressed by Home Office Officials.

The local staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, under Assistant Superintendents William Jones and James Creagan, joined in an enthusiastic meeting in the district office in the Burke building yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was a happening of considerable importance to the local workers, as they were honored by the visit of home officials, including Assistant Superintendent Holleran, of New York city, and Superintendent Avery, of Scranton. Addresses were made by each of these officers, besides local Assistant Superintendents Jones and Creagan, and J. C. Naylor, of Honesdale. Valuable hints on field work were given the agents. Cheers and a pleasant social time concluded the successful meeting.

Greeting Old Friends.

La Verno A. Russell, formerly a music dealer in Forest City, and representative in this part of the county of the Keller & Van Dyke piano factory at Scranton, was at the Harrison house yesterday.

Mr. Russell is now located in Saginaw, Mich., which has been his home since last summer. He is well liked and has found a place for which he is well qualified, and where his ability is to be manifested in satisfying results to his employers. He is manager of the wholesale department of the Bremer-Pryor Piano company, which is well known throughout the central

CAN WRITE THEM.

Calkins, the Story Teller.

Mr. Franklin W. Calkins, of Wyoming, Wis., who writes many interesting stories for the "Youth's Companion," says:

"Food can make or unmake a writer. For a number of years, living the sedentary life of the writer and student, I suffered all the ills of nervous dyspepsia. I could eat nothing in the morning save a dry crust of toasted bread and a cup of weak coffee. For my dinner at 6 o'clock, I had been in the habit of eating rare beef steak, the only food from which I seemed to get proper nourishment, but to my disgust taken without the aid of proper digestion; I was beginning to get disgusted with life.

About a year ago a friend suggested Grape-Nuts telling me of the benefit he had received from the food and I began with it as directed; I found immediate relief from my indigestion and in a short time my dyspepsia left me entirely. I have now used Grape-Nuts for a year and have had no trouble with my stomach having eaten many enjoyable dinners.

I find in fact that all you say for Grape-Nuts is true and it is certainly the food for brain workers and the truth of your claims is proved in my own case. I have no regrets for Grape-Nuts."

DELIGHTED WITH VISITS.

Institute Instructors Leave Carbondale with Pleasant Memories.

Miss Laura D. Hagarty, whose lectures on elementary language and elementary arithmetic were so interesting and helpful to the teachers during their institute, returned yesterday to her home in Buffalo, N. Y., where she is conspicuous in school work.

Miss Hagarty, on leaving, expressed herself as being delighted beyond measure with her visit to Carbondale. The hospitality of our people she found to be exceptionally warm-hearted, as do all visitors to the town. The fact of this being the "anthracite city," the birthplace of the great anthracite coal industry, was received by her with great interest, to which she attached numerous historical coal facts and coal souvenirs which she said she would treasure. Miss Hagarty departed for her home with numerous pleasant memories of her first visit to Carbondale.

Prof. E. L. Kemp, principal of the East Stroudsburg State Normal school, the intensely interesting lecturer on psychology, added appreciably to the large number of friends he already claimed in Carbondale. Prof. Kemp taught at normal schools a number of Carbondale teachers, to whom he paid many kind tributes. His stay in Carbondale was all the more enjoyable because of his numerous acquaintances here.

THOMAS FOX'S FUNERAL.

The Young Man Who Met a Sad Fate at Rest.

The funeral of the late Thomas J. Fox, the quiet, unassuming young man whose sad death was a cause of sincere regret among the many friends of the family, took place yesterday forenoon. A large number of sorrowful friends followed from the residence on Powderly street to St. Rose church, where a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Walter Gorman. After the absolution, Rev. Father Gorman delivered the eulogy. Burial was in St. Rose cemetery.

Rev. H. H. Harris, Ph. D., pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of Taylor, will occupy the Berean Baptist pulpit in this city tomorrow, morning and evening.

Dr. Harris is known as one of the best preachers in the valley, and his coming to this city will be appreciated by the Baptist congregation. Although he is the pastor of an English church, he is a conspicuous figure in the councils of the Welsh congregations of all denominations.

AMUSEMENTS.

Edie Elliser, on Thursday.

A rare dramatic event is promised on next Thursday, Dec. 11, at the Grand, when Frank L. Perley will present Edie Elliser in Paul Kester's dramatic production of "The Romance of a Knight." Miss Elliser stands high in her art and has attained her rank in her chosen profession by merit and hard work. Her tour which commenced Aug. 25 last, has been one continual succession of large houses.

List of Patients Grows.

Mrs. Charles Bronson is dangerously ill, her condition causing a good deal of alarm to her friends.

Dr. Peter Larkin, of Uniontown, who was taken quite ill when he arrived here a few weeks ago to visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Larkin, on Brooklyn street, has suffered a relapse, and is now in a dangerous condition, pneumonia having developed.

Gardell Williams, the alert assistant manager of the Hotel American, is confined to his room by a severe illness. G. Frank Couch, who is seriously ill at his home on Washington street, is slightly improved.

Walter Bennett, who has been suffering with typhoid fever, is considerably improved. The members of his family who are down with the same disease are also somewhat better.

Miss Superintendent John W. White, of Seventh avenue, who is ill with typhoid fever, is still in a very critical condition.

The First Accident.

The first victim of snow-covered walks this winter is Miss Jennie Bryden, one of the city's corps of teachers. Miss Bryden was returning from the close of the institute yesterday noon, when the misfortune befell her. She was walking on South Main street, she missed her footing on the slippery surface and fell quite heavily. Her back was injured, and while not dangerously, it was necessary for her to go to her home on Washington street, in a cab. Beyond the sudden disturbance, Miss Bryden did not suffer, and will be about in a few days. This will be a serious loss to her friends, who were noticeably alarmed by the magnified stories of the happening.

A CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

One Very Common Cause, Generally Overlooked.

Headache is a symptom, an indication of derangement or disease in some organ, and the cause of the headache is difficult to locate because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom; derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble, kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain or ill fitting glasses all produce headaches, and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter.

However, for that form of headache called frontal headache, pain back of the eyes and forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head and throat; when the headache is located in back of head and neck it is often caused from catarrh of the stomach or liver.

At any rate catarrh is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure of the catarrh causes a prompt disappearance of the headaches. There is at present no treatment for catarrh so convenient and effective as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new internal remedy in tablet form, composed of antiseptics like red gum, blood root, which act upon the blood and cause the elimination of the catarrhal poison from the system through the natural channels.

Miss Cora Atinsley, a prominent school teacher in one of our normal schools, speaks of her experience with catarrhal headaches and endorses Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as a cure for them. She says: "I suffered daily from severe frontal headache and pain in back of the eyes, at times so intensely as to incapacitate me in my daily duties. I had suffered from catarrh, more or less, for years, but never thought it was the cause of my headaches, but finally became convinced that such was the case because the headaches were always worse whenever I had a cold or fresh attack of catarrh."

"Stuart's Catarrh Tablets were highly recommended to me as a safe and pleasant remedy, and after using a few fifty cent boxes, which I procured from my druggist, I was surprised and delighted to find that both the catarrh and headaches had gone for good."

"Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at fifty cents per package, under the guarantee of the proprietor that they contain absolutely no cocaine (found in so many catarrh cures) no opium (so common in cheap cough cures), nor any harmful drug. They contain simply the wholesome antiseptics necessary to destroy and drive from the system the germs of catarrhal disease."

For the Sunday. After services, the annual financial report will be read and disposed of. All are welcome. The church will also be open in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Dr. Vandenberg, the missionary, will address us, as already announced. We hope a good attendance.

The employees of the Delaware and Hudson collieries here were paid yesterday. Among the absentees were the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Callahan, of Blakely was badly scalded about the arms and face on Thursday.
